Traders Ignore Rumors of Another Hitch in Proceedings * at Portsmouth.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, August 21.—The faith of a large part of the financial world in a happy solution of the proceedings at Portsmouth seems to be so strong that it ignored all rumors of another serious litch in the negotiations to-day and continued to establish new high records in the stock market. The issues which came in for this distinction included three of the market lenders, namely. Union Pathe market leaders, namely, Union Pa-offic, United States Steel preferred and Reading.

Pennsylvania was the most conspicueifle, United States Steel preferred and Reading.

Pennsylvania was the most conspicuous feature at the opening, which was broad. The stock advanced easily on heavy trading, gaining not quite a full point. Amalgamated Copper shared honors with Pennsylvania, and greater gains on smaller transactions were scored at the outset by Louisville and Nashville, Colorado Fuel, Metropolitan Street Rallway and some less prominent Issues. Prices yleided some on heavy profitaking shortly after the first outburst, Union Pacific, Missouri Pacific, St. Paul, Reading and Atchison falling below the previous day's closing prices, and the tone of the market became relatively quiet. The movement in Pennsylvania found many followers, however, and commission houses and traders bought this stock, also Southern Railway and the United States Steel Issues, Union Pacific soon recovered more than its loss. The strength of this issue is partly explained by the pear approach of the closing of the transfer books, which may cause the calling of a lot of stock now out on loans.

It was not until after midday that Reading once more assumed leadership, advancing rapidly on heavy buying of the character heretofore noted from 115-5, its low price of the morning, to 122-12, a new high record. For a time, at loss, the remainder of the list showed little sympathy with the renewed strength of Reading, and the market again developed an Irregilar tendency, until Union Pacific established its new high record, from which attention was again diverted by a fresh increased rise in Reading to 123-17. This sensational movement created fears of a "corner" and unsettled the general list to the extent of cutting out practically all of the day's substantial gains, and in some instances sending prices below the previous day's close. Reading made a pet gain of 3-4 points. Amalgamated Copper made a 1 point response to a further rise in the gride of the metal, third reported this weekbut its gain was lost in the linial of the day and on the price of the day anear presen

When seen last night Chief Werner said that he was assured by Syrcie's friends that he would return, but like St. Thomas, he doubted.

If E. K. Culberson's whereabouts can be discovered the hooks will be thrown around him and he will be brought back to face an indignant array of irate citizens.

"Dinged" if He Knew.

Jackson Wise stopped an absorbing game of pool on yesterday to answer the question: "Who had you appointed as registrar at Third Monroe?"

"I'll be dinged if I know." he said, "I was out of town at the time, and when I returned I found a big envelope on the escretore in my room with the appointment in it. Mr. George Buill, a friend of mine, advised me not to accept the position, on the ground that it might interfere with my horse business. I tried to find out who was kind enough to throw $5 in my way, but could not, and now I wish I had taken Mr. Buil's advice and refused to accept the place. It'll cost me more than a hundred, I am afraid, before I am through with it. I wish I did know who recommended me to the Electoral Board, for I'd tell him a few things."
